

Continuing Professional Development with the National Education Union

We offer specific CPD to support you at every stage of your teaching journey. The CPD provided is continually adapted and reviewed to meet your learning needs and the needs of your students. Most of it is fully-funded so you pay nothing, or a heavily discounted price.

AUTUMN TERM 2025

Using curiosity and wonder to engage learners

17/09/25 - The world is full of wonderful and curious things. This session will show you how and why you should use them to cultivate curiosity and promote learning in your school.

School Sustainability Leads: What's involved?

23/09/25 - In this session, we'll consider what the School Sustainability role entails and how to adopt a meaningful whole-school approach to climate and ecological wellbeing, in a way that supports you, your pupils and the community.

Adaptive Teaching: Overcoming barriers to learning

24/09/25 - Needed for some but benefitting all: classroom strategies to support all students to achieve in their lessons.

Behaviour leadership – Moving beyond behaviour management

29/09/25 - This session will explore the R9 Model of Behaviour Leadership with focus on presence, assertiveness and responding to high frequency, low level behaviour.

Librarians: Behaviour management in the school library

29/09/25 - This session on behaviour management is for staff working in a school library and especially those working alone.

Primary: Dealing with low level disruption

30/09/25 - This webinar will explore those behaviours at primary that, while not overtly challenging or confrontational, can interfere with teaching and learning.

Secondary: Dealing with low level disruption

30/09/25 - This webinar will explore those behaviours at secondary that, while not overtly challenging or confrontational, can interfere with teaching and learning.

Transactional analysis in education: An introduction

01/10/25 - Join this session to learn about the core principles in Transactional Analysis and the benefits for its use in education.

SEMH and behaviour in the classroom

01/10/25 - This webinar will cover how social emotional and mental health can affect classroom behaviour and tools on how to tackle this.

Managing the difficult classroom

02/10/25 - Join this session to gain strategies to make a difficult classroom more manageable.

Positive Psychology – theory and principles

02/10/25 - This session will look at how positive psychology can provide practitioners with a framework for enhancing wellbeing and resilience.

Positive Psychology – putting theory into practice

07/10/25 - This session will look at how positive psychology can provide practitioners with a framework for enhancing wellbeing and resilience.

Leadership masterclass: Courageous conversations

08/10/25 - This is an online leadership masterclass aimed at those in middle and senior leadership positions or those who lead a team.

ECT'S and trainees: managing the tricky class

14/10/25 - Join this session to gain positive behaviour management strategies to help you manage the tricky class.

Early career teachers and trainees: effective teaching and learning strategies

14/10/25 - A session on effective teaching and learning strategies that will provide you with low effort, high impact ideas for any classroom.

Early career teachers and trainees: assertiveness

15/10/25 - This session will cover research-based, practical strategies for ensuring you are seen and heard as your authentic professional self.

Early career teachers and trainees: classroom management

15/10/25 - This session for ECTs and Trainees will explore classroom and behaviour management with a focus on the effects socio-economic conditions can have on disengaged and hostile students.

ECT'S and trainees: an introduction to speech and language challenges

16/10/25 - A session that will help you to identify and support children and young people with speech and language challenges and understand the impact on other areas of development.

Early career teachers and trainees: classroom presence – the teaching persona

16/10/25 - Developing a classroom presence and a teaching persona will have a profoundly positive impact on teaching and learning. This webinar examines the positive impact your voice and body language can have in the classroom when fashioning your...

The power to change – racism in the classroom

21/10/25 - This session will explore the importance and value of increased representation in schools and the curriculum and will showcase the resources of CARGO classroom.

Poverty: The cost of having fun at school - Developing inclusion

22/10/25 - This session will explore what schools can do to increase participation and inclusion for children from lower-income households in extra-curricular, enrichment and fun opportunities.

Leadership masterclass: Developing your vision as a leader

04/11/25 - This is an online leadership masterclass aimed at those in middle or senior leadership positions or those who lead a team.

The pedagogy of play

05/11/25 - A session on the importance and value of play in young children's development and how you can help to provide the optimal conditions to allow children's play to flourish.

Understanding dyslexia and supporting reading

10/11/25 - Explore how dyslexia affects learners of all ages and discover practical strategies to create inclusive, reading-friendly classrooms.

Scaffolding in practice – Empowering support staff to enable all children and young people to thrive

10/11/25 - A webinar for support staff exploring scaffolding in practice

Understanding and supporting students with SpLD in maths, including dyscalculia

11/11/25 - Insights for understanding SpLDs in maths, including dyscalculia, and maths anxiety, with ideas for practical support in the classroom.

Secondary: Why speech & language development is important for social, emotional & mental health and how to support students

11/11/25 - This session will look at how to best support secondary pupils' talking and understanding of words to positively impact their wellbeing.

Neurodivergent educators: From awareness to affirming practice

12/11/25 - An informative and engaging session exploring the lived experience of a neurodivergent teacher, with practical tools, legal context, and union guidance on fostering neuro-inclusive workplaces in education.

Girls and autism

12/11/25 - This session will help you understand the challenges for girls with autism and how to help them achieve their amazing potential.

Teaching the neurodiverse class

13/11/25 - This session provides strategies focused on language, attention, processing, and working memory to help you create an inclusive and effective classroom environment.

Study skills and revision techniques for neurodivergent learners

13/11/25 - In this session, we will explore practical strategies to support neurodivergent learners, focusing upon building memory, attentional regulation and executive functioning skills.

Supply: Managing the tricky class

18/11/25 - Join this session to gain positive behaviour management strategies to help you manage the tricky class.

Using an emotion coaching approach

25/11/25 - This session will consider the role emotion coaching can play in supporting children and young people's emotional and behavioural wellbeing.

An introduction to trauma and mental health informed schools – part 1

25/11/25 Part 1 of 2 - This training is designed to empower school staff to understand the needs of children and teenagers who have suffered a trauma or have a mental health issue.

Playful connections - emotional regulation in the classroom

26/11/25 This session delves into the impact of trauma on the developing child, and the power of trusting relationships in healing.

Teacher wellbeing - Purpose, Perspective and Agency

26/11/25 - Learn how to connect with your sense of purpose, maintain a sense of perspective and develop your sense of agency to enhance your wellbeing.

Leadership well-being

27/11/25 - Exploring the context of leader well-being and developing practical strategies to support both yourself and those you lead.

An introduction to trauma and mental health informed schools – part 2

02/12/25 - Part 2 of 2. This training is designed to empower school staff to understand the needs of children and teenagers who have suffered a trauma or have a mental health issue.

Anti-poverty practices in your classroom

03/12/25 - This session will explore the hidden everyday barriers that pupils from low-income households can face at school and what teachers can practically do in their classrooms to support children experiencing poverty and create inclusive classrooms.

Opening Pandora's box: A philosophical approach to challenging conversations

17/12/25 - This session offers a philosophical approach to facilitating challenging conversations in the classroom, built around the creation of a 'Community of Enquiry' where constructive conversations can take place.

Sign up for anything you like!
Over the course of the year, more CPD will be added for the spring and summer term so make sure to check the website frequently.

<https://neu.org.uk/courses/national-cpd>

FIND MORE GREAT COURSES & REGISTER NOW!

NOT YET A MEMBER?

Join the largest education union in Europe. Free for trainee teachers or just £1 in your first year teaching after qualifying.

neu.org.uk/join-neu

We are the NEU.
Join us.
national education union
neu.org.uk/join